Sustainability & Food Culture

Welcome to Mount Rainier National Park! We are proud to call this space our home and thank you for sharing in it with us. We respectfully acknowledge the rich history of this land and are working towards menus that give voice to our First Nation tribes as well as Eastern colonist families like the Longmire family. Rainier Guest Services in partnership with the National Parks Service, is committed to reducing our environmental footprint in hopes of securing a healthy landscape for many generations to come. From sourcing environmentally responsible proteins to featuring locally grown produce, our team is looking to create an authentic high quality dining experience for our guests

-Claire Schneyman Executive Park Chef

We welcome ALL race, religions, countries, orientations, abilities & dietary needs. Please notify your server of any food allergies or ADA accommodations.
